

OUR AUTHORS

Dinušova Dominika — Ph.D., Assistant Professor at the Social Science Department of the Academy of the Police Force in Bratislava. Her fields of research include the revolutionary critical thought in history of philosophy, the concept of social change in past and present political discourses and the philosophy and ethics in law enforcement. Main publications: „For the Voice of Revolution“ (2018).

Drynochkin Alexey — Doctor of Economics, Professor at the Department of World Economy in MGIMO (MFA) University. Previously he was Leading researcher at Center for Visegrad Studies, RAS' Institute of Europe. His main area of scientific interests is the economic aspects of transformation processes in Eastern Europe. He is the author of more than 70 scientific and educational works, including the monographs “Eastern Europe as an Element of the Global Market System”, “The Economy of Hungary”, “The Economy of Albania”, as well as of the chapters in collective monographs of the Institute of Europe RAS (“Visegrad Europe: where from and where to?”).

Dzwończyk Joanna — Dr Hab., Professor, Department of Political Studies at Cracow University of Economics. She graduated from the Faculty of Sociology, Jagiellonian University in 1989. In 2011, she defended her Doctor thesis: «Political aspects of civil society in Poland after 1989». Major publications: “Populistyczne tendencje w społeczeństwie postsocjalistycznym (na przykładzie Polski)” (2000); «Polityczne aspekty rozwoju społeczeństwa obywatelskiego w Polsce po 1989 roku» (2009).

Hlaváčková Hana N. — Ph.D., works as an assistant professor at the Metropolitan University Prague at the Department of International Relations and European Studies. Graduated from the Department of Political Science and International Relations at the University of West Bohemia in Plzen (Czech Republic). She is engaged in research in the field of security, international relations, conflict management, migration policy. Major publications: “Role Slovinska v integraci zemí západního Balkánu do EU: analýza diskurzu slovinských zahraničně-politických aktérů” (2017); «Zahraníční politika Slovinska, 1. vyd.» (2016).

Hoptova Luciana — Ph.D., researcher at the Institute of History of the Prešov University (Slovakia), Department of philosophy. Her interests include the history of Belarus in the 20th century, Byelorussian emigration to Czechoslovakia and modern Slovakia. Main publications: “The Byelorussian emigration to the territory of Czechoslovakia (1918– 1945)” (2017) (Bieloruská emigrácia na území Československa (1918–1945)).

Marušiak Juraj — Ph.D., graduated from the Faculty of Philosophy of Comenius University in Bratislava (1994). Since 1996, he works at the Institute of Political Science of the Slovak Academy of Sciences. Had been member of the SAS presidium. His research is focused on the history of Slovakia of the 20-th century and on the issues of international relations in the region of Central and Eastern Europe since 1989. Beside numerous articles in scientific journals and newspapers he had published a monograph „Slovenská literatúra a moc v druhej polovici päťdesiatych rokov“ (Slovak Literature and the Power in the second half of the 50's; Brno, Prius 2001), he is co-author of the monograph «(Dez)integračná sila stredoeurópskeho nacionalizmu» (The (Dis)integration Power of Central European Nationalism: A Study of the Visegrad Group Countries; Bratislava, Comenius University 2015).

Shcherbakova Julia — Candidate of Historical sciences, Senior researcher at the Department of Eastern Europe, INION RAS. Specialist in the field of modern socio-political development, transformation processes, international and regional cooperation, national politics in the Czech Republic and Slovakia. She is the author of two monographs: «Czechs and Slovaks: Together and Apart (the Experience of New Statehood)» (2006) and «The Breakup of Czechoslovakia: Estimates Twenty Years Later» (2012), co-author of three more monographs.

Shishelina Lyubov — Doctor of Historical sciences, Head of the Department of Central and Eastern European studies and the Visegrad center at the Institute of Europe, RAS. In 2004–2014 — Professor of the Chair of Social Sciences at Kodolányi János University (Hungary). Since 2007 — Professor of the Department of World politics and international relations at Russian State University of Humanities. Foreign member of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences (2015). In 1994, she founded the annual international scientific conference “Russia and Central Europe in new geopolitical realities”. She is the author of six books and around 300 articles, editor-in-chief of 13 monographs on relations between Russia and Central Europe; expert of the Russian Academy of Sciences and Russian International Affairs Council. In 2010, she was awarded the Knight’s Cross of the Hungarian State Order.

Vedernikov Mikhail — Candidate of Historical sciences. In 2013 graduated from the Department of history at Lomonosov Moscow State University. Currently senior researcher of the Department of Central and Eastern European studies and the Visegrad center at the RAS’ Institute of Europe.