

OUR AUTHORS

Habarta Andrzej — Graduate of the Department of International Economic Relations of MGIMO University, Candidate of economic Sciences. Associate Professor of the Department of world economy at MGIMO University, leading researcher of the Visegrad center at the RAS' Institute of Europe. Specialist in the field of Polish-Russian bilateral cooperation (economy, investments, cross-border and interregional cooperation.)

Hopta Ivo — Graduate of the A.S. Pushkin Brest State University, Moscow State Institute of International Relations and post-doctoral studies at the RMF Diplomatic Academy specializing in Political Science and Regional Studies.

Ilyash György — Graduated from the Eötvös Loránd University. Research Fellow at Institute for Foreign Affairs and Trade (IFAT) (Budapest, Hungary) specializing on Russia (Russian history, politics, strategic thinking, political processes in the post-Soviet space, transformation of Russian foreign policy.

Šitler Jiří is a Czech historian and diplomat who has worked in European universities and archives; in the team of the first president of Czechoslovakia — and the Czech Republic-Vaclav Havel. Later he represented the interests of the Czech Republic in the rank of the Ambassador to Southeast Asia, Romania and Sweden as well as in the negotiations on compensation for the Czech victims of the Nazi regime under WW II. He is the author of the numerous essays, articles and books on the political history of Czechia, Czech — German relations, history of the Second World War, as well as on the history of Southeast Asia.

Stykalin Alexander — Candidate of Historical Sciences, leading researcher at the Department of History of the Slavic Peoples during the World Wars in the Institute of Slavic Studies (since 1988). He studies the problems of the modern history of Hungary, the history of international relations in Central and South-Eastern Europe in the post-war period, the policy of the USSR in relation to the European socialist countries. Explores the key problems of Soviet-Hungarian and Soviet-Romanian relations.

Vedernikov Mikhail — graduate of the Department of history, Lomonosov Moscow State University. Candidate of historical sciences, senior researcher of the Department of Central and Eastern European studies and the Visegrad center at the RAS Institute of Europe.

Zadorozhnyuk Ella — Doctor of Historical sciences, Head of the Department of Contemporary History of Central and Southeastern Europe. Historian, specialist in the contemporary history of the Czech Republic and Slovakia (Czechoslovakia), as well as countries of Central and Southeastern Europe. She analyzes in a comparative historical manner the problems of sociopolitical development of the countries of Central and South-Eastern Europe, studies the history of the dissident and opposition movements and the history of the “Velvet” revolution in Czechoslovakia as well as the post-socialist development of the Czech Republic and Slovakia, works in the field of historical personology.